

OUTBURSTS OF EVERETT TRUE

Washington.—If private shipbuilding firms won't of their own free will build the seven scout cruisers navy needs they will be compelled by the government to build them.

London.—Bonar Law, chancellor of exchequer, asks supplementary vote of credit of $250,000,000, bringing year's war expenditures for Great Britain to $10,000,000,000.